

Course Narrative:

Literacy Coach Network

The Literacy Coach Network will provide training and support for Bay-Arenac ISD Literacy coaches and learning leaders. The training and monthly network meetings will be a venue for learning new information, sharing ideas, and promoting literacy in our region. Educators who attend this series will receive a current resource book on Literacy Coaching.

Course Outcomes:

Participants will:

1. Increase understanding of the roles and responsibilities of coaches, the change process, relationships, building literacy teams and how to deal with district mandates.
2. Be exposed to strategies for successful coaching, developing relationships and trust, and providing support that includes talking, thinking, and processing with others.
3. Increase understanding of how adult learners learn.
4. Be provided with tools to meet the many and varied roles of a Literacy Coach, such as:

- Preparing for Professional Development Sessions
- Doing Modeling and Demonstration Teaching
- Leading Data Analysis Sessions
- Leading Study Groups
- Finding Resources
- Conversations "On-the-Fly"
- Organizing Peer-Coaching
- Assisting with Action Research
- Analyzing Data
