AUDIENCE: Arts Educators (K-12 and Post-Secondary), Arts and Cultural Organizations, Teaching Artists

The Bay-Arenac ISD (BAISD) has established an Arts Network to support increased access to the arts for PK-12 students and foster regional collaboration among arts and culture organizations, educators, and teaching artists.

The Arts Network is supported by MI Creative Potential and the Michigan Arts and Culture Council. Professional learning and convenings are offered on an ongoing basis. An annual conference is held each spring. The BAISD is proud to sponsor and support this innovative arts initiative.

ARTS NETWORK OBJECTIVES:

- Provide professional development that supports exceptional arts education.
- Improve access and equity in arts education within our schools and community.
- Strengthen arts community through partnerships and collaborations with practicing artists and arts and cultural organizations.
