Ideally 2-4 people per district would commit to attending each meeting. Those individuals should be either currently implementing technology tools in classrooms or interested in doing so.

Facilitator Adrienne Cole, Science & Instructional Tech Coach

Ready to elevate your classroom tech and bridge the gap between education and the future workforce? Join us for this dynamic, 3-day series designed to dive deep into the latest tools, programs, and technology initiatives from REMC 6.

Through collaborative discussions with fellow tech-forward educators, you'll explore practical ways to implement new tech tools in the classroom while discovering powerful new strategies to connect your students with STEM careers and community resources.

Note: Attendance at all three sessions is highly recommended. Lunch and SCECHs will be provided!
